Applicant's response of 3/3/05 has been entered. Currently claims 22-35 are pending.

Applicant's election without traverse of Group V, in the reply filed on 12/2/04 is acknowledged. The elected group includes claims 22-25 and 32-35. With respect to claims 26-31, these claims are directed to a non-elected invention because the apparatus can be used in a different method than is being claimed. Claims 26-31 substantially correspond to claims canceled by applicant that were non-elected and do not belong to the apparatus claim group. Claims 22-25, 32-35 have been examined and claims 26-31 are withdrawn as being directed to a non-elected invention.

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 22-25, 32-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rondeau (5850433).

For claims 22, 32, Rondeau discloses an online service directory where a customer can search for a desired service. There is a server 28 and a registry 14 that contains descriptive information about services that are available. The electronic device is 18. The network adapter is 32. With respect to the language reciting that the electronic device is "to receive...." a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. In a claim drawn to a process of making, the intended use must result in a manipulative difference as compared to the prior art. See In re Casey, 370 F.2d 576, 152 USPQ 235 (CCPA 1967) and In re Otto, 312 F.2d 937, 939, 136 USPQ 458, 459 (CCPA 1963). In this case, the intended use imparts no further structure to the claim and is solely directed to the intended manner of use. Applicant should take notice that all the claim recites structurally is a server, a registry, and an electronic device (singular). This is anticipated by Rondeau.

For claims 23-25,33-35, these claims are reciting the intended use of the apparatus and are also anticipated by Rondeau for the same reasons as explained with respect to claims 22,32.

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Stiles (6219692), Perkowski (5918214), DeBruin-Ashton (6014629), DeLorme et al. (5948040), and Holland et al. (6493742) disclose directories that list service providers and are Internet accessible.
